ADVERTISING INFORMATION AND RATE SHEET

Since 1978, New England Review has given readers a vital snapshot of the literary moment, four times a year, in its richness, complexity, and diversity. Published by Middlebury College in quality paperback with a full-color cover, it is distributed through paid subscriptions and is available in libraries worldwide in print and digitally. Writing from New England Review frequently appears in anthologies of literary merit such as The Pushcart Prize: Best of the Small Presses, The Best American Short Stories, The Best American Essays, and The Best American Poetry. Deemed “a high-class lit magazine that also happens to be secretly sexy” by the Boston Globe, NER has cultivated a readership that is educated, diverse, and inclined to purchase books.

Single-copy price is $14; one-year subscriptions are $38; one-year e-book subscriptions are $33. A sample of the magazine’s contents is available on our website (www.nereview.com).
